PUBLISHED WEEKLY IN CANAL POINT BY PAUL RARDIN

CIRCULATING THROUGHOUT THE VAST AGRICULTURAL AREA OF PALM BEACH COUNTY

New Water Line Is Being Installed By C. P. Utilities, Inc.

Henry Kautz and a group of workmen are busy this week laying the first water line north from Canal Point water plant to the Albert Fremd Home. The distance is 1½ miles, according to Mr. Kautz. Through the years the folks north of the plant "up the ridge" have had only home-made plants to serve their needs as far as water was concerned. This new six-inch line will give them water from the local plant at their fingertips.

Folks south of the West Palm Beach canal, who had been served for years from the inadequate water plant built originally by Van Stuckey, were cut in on water from the plant north of the canal a few weeks ago. Mr. Kautz said. Their service is far better than it was on the old plant, he said. Mr. Kautz is president of Canal Point Utilities, Inc., and says that present plans call for even better service in the future than he has been able to render in the past.

Plans are being made for the Spring Harvest Festival, April 15 through 19. The festival will be held at the Glades Airport and will be double in size to the one held last year. Honored guest will be Doyle Conner, Commissioner of Agriculture, Tallahassee, with Saturday, April 18, proclaimed as "Doyle Conner Day."

Watkins Praises Co. Commission

Howell Watkins, who retired as county superintendent of schools on January 1, made an unannounced visit to the county commission meeting this week. Watkins appeared to personally thank the board for a resolution it had adopted, commending Watkins for his long years of service as a public official. Watkins told the commission that in all his years with the school system, no one group had been more cooperative than the county commission.

Turnpike Opened Wildwood South

WILDWOOD — Florida's 156-mile turnpike extension between Ft. Pierce and Wildwood opened to public use recently.

Completion of the Orlando to Wildwood segment of the turnpike was the final step in development of the 255-mile-long Sunshine State Parkway connecting Miami with the Georgia state line.

While no formal dedication ceremonies were held, officials cited Wildwood as reaching a new status as the northern gateway to the state.

Board Will Get R-W On Rardin Avenue

The county commission learned this week that a project for improvement of Congress Avenue, is expected to be among bids set for a March 3 letting by the state road department.

Orders of taking for Congress Avenue rights of way and right of way for improvement of North Military Trail, have been issued by circuit court. The commission learned from Engineer George Frost.

Other road matters before the commission this week included:

A vote by the board to ask the municipalities of Riviera Beach and North Palm Beach to adopt set back ordinances to conform to county set back lines for State Road A1A on Singer Island.

Voted to start condemnation proceedings for two pieces of right-of-way for improvement of Rardin Avenue in Pahokee.

Voted to start condemnation proceedings for right-of-way for improvement of Atlantic Avenue, at Delray Beach after a 30-day period of negotiation expires.

Heard that improvement of Forest Hill Boulevard, between Congress Avenue and the Seaboard Railroad would cost an estimated $400,000.

Voted to call for bids for construction of a new bridge over canal C-15 between Boynton Beach and Delray Beach—an Old Dixie Highway span.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Funderburk were initiated into the Order. At the close of the meeting refreshments were served by Mrs. Adaline Wroten assisted by Mrs. Peggy Sizemore.

Former state senator Bud Dickinson is a full-fledged candidate for governor since his official announcement a few days ago. Bud is considered a front-runner by many political prognosticators.

Pahokee Builders Erecting Home For Bldg. Caretaker

Blanton and Unwin, Pahokee builders, are busy this week with erection of a concrete block and stucco two-bedroom house at the Glades Office Building to be occupied by the caretaker there. The home is being erected on a six acre tract of land recently secured from the State, according to County Commissioner Paul Rardin, who secured the land and planned for the new house.

The present frame house now occupied by the caretaker, Gene Mobley, will be remodeled and moved to the area to be occupied by the caretaker at the county barn, Rufus Griffin.

In the expansion program at the Glades Office Building, Commissioner Rardin said the parking lot is being enlarged and when completed the addition will contain twice as much space as the present lot.

A special high test gasoline filling station has been built for the sheriff's department, Rardin said. It is located to the rear of the pump house on the present parking lot.

Business Women Hear C. E. Williams

C. E. Williams, insurance analyst of Pahokee, was guest speaker at the dinner meeting of the Pahokee Business and Professional Women's Club held in the Community Building at the Glades Park. Mr. Williams was welcomed by Mrs. Allie Okie, president and introduced by Mrs. Paye McDowell, program arranger. He spoke on "Traffic Laws and Insurance." The hostess committee which directed arrangements of the covered dish dinner, included Mrs. Doris Sasser, Mrs. Johnnie Verhulst, Mrs. Alma Farrow and Mrs. Lucille Williams.

WITH THE RAILROAD BOARD

Bible Reading Has Supreme Court OK

The State Supreme Court ruled Wednesday for the second time that Bible reading and recitation of the Lord's Prayer is legal in the public schools of Florida.

The court's unanimous decision said, in effect, that if these practices are to be denied the children of Florida, it will have to be done by order of the U. S. Supreme Court, not the Florida court.

It is necessary to good citizenship and does not offend the constitutional requirement for separation of the church and state, the Florida court said.

The Florida law, said the court, was not stricken down by U. S. Supreme Court decisions in Pennsylvania and Maryland.

Garden Club Hears Of Fund Raising

At the January meeting of the Pahokee Garden Club, a nominating committee was named to recommend a new slate of officers. Those serving on the committee are, Mrs. W. A. Keen, Mrs. Norman Kennedy and Mrs. L. L. Shirley.

Members voted to change the starting hour of the meeting to 10:30 a. m. A report on the club's fund raising project, the sale of fruit cakes was given by Mrs. Phumey Rex. Convers, director of the Pine Jog Nature Center, West Palm Beach, spoke on "Birds and Conservation."

Bake Sale Is Set By Sorority Group

The Phi Gamma Nu Chapter of the Beta Sigma Phi sorority met Monday night, January 27 at the home of Mrs. Glenda Padgett. Mrs. Joan Gamot, president, it was announced that a "Bake Sale" will be held Saturday, February 3 in front of Thriftway beginning at 9:00 a. m.

Mrs. Billy Mackey presented the program entitled "Hand full of Charm," at which time she described the steps to having lovely hands. Mrs. Mary Thomas, advisor and Mrs. Sheila Ames, member of the committee headed by Mrs. Thomas, attended.

Work should get underway before too many weeks on the several road projects in the Glades, according to County Commissioner Paul Rardin, who was in Tallahassee Tuesday when bids were received on 500,000 yards of rock to be dredged out of Lake Okechobee to build the projects. The Hendry Corporation of Tampa was low bidder at 96½ cents per yard and Rardin said this was a very good price. In December bids were received on the same project and the lowest bid was $1.42 per yard for the rock.

He said also the Hialeah firm of Capeletti Bros., Inc. was low bidder for construction of a 142 foot bridge across Hillsboro Canal at Fifth Street in Belle Glade, with an offer of $118,794.70.

A West Palm Beach construction firm, Cleary Bros., was second lowest, he said, at $127,678.71. He said he recommended the commission approve the Capeletti bid.

J. M. Whitaker and Sons Inc. of Sebring was low at $123,355 on resurfacing 3.8 miles of streets in Moore Haven. Second low bidder was Curcle Brothers Inc. of Hialeah at $124,134.

Here Is What Transpired At Monday's Meeting Of The Palm Beach County Commission

A $900 a year appropriation by the county school board to help underwrite the salary of a county home demonstration agent, has become a legal snag for the county commission and school board.

Meantime, the home demonstration agent, assigned to 4-H club work in the schools, has been going along without $75 of her monthly salary.

The payment, according to M. U. Mounts, county agent, has been made by the school board for about 30 years without question. This year, he explained, someone on the school board questioned the legality of the appropriation.

The question was forwarded to the state Attorney General's office for an opinion which has not yet been delivered.

So this week, the county commission, at the suggestion of Lake Lytal and over the opposition of Commissioner E. F. Van Kessel, voted to pick up the $75 monthly tab, until the entire issue can be ironed out.

If the county commission had a millions plus to spend, it could have four choice pieces of ocean front property owned by the state.

The board learned Monday that four areas—all in the Jupiter-Inlet section—are available for a price, the largest with a tab of $750,000.

The areas are available from the state II board.

Commissioner Lake Lytal noted that it appeared the state had a most confusing situation on its hands. He said the state is attempting to buy up land for recreational purposes and on the other hand is trying to sell the same kind of land it is trying to buy.

Furthermore, the same set of state officials are acting as buyers and sellers—the governor and his cabinet.

The commission decided to take a closer look at the proposition before taking any action.

The board this week also adopted a resolution asking the Flood Control District to turn over any surplus lands it had to the county for use as recreational sites.

Hunt Schedules Set For 1964-65

TALLAHASSEE — Florida's 1964-65 hunting and fishing regulations will be established during the month of April and become effective July 1, 1964, according to an announcement by A. D. Aldrich, director, Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission.

The annual regulations meeting has been advanced to April in order to provide additional time for printing of regulations. Prior to the April meeting, both hunting and fishing regulations were established during the month of July and as a result, fishermen often found themselves fishing without full knowledge of the current regulations.

Aldrich said the change in dates of the regulations meetings was enacted at a regular business meeting of the Commission in Gainesville, January 24. The regulations meeting will follow a series of public meetings that will be held throughout the state during the month of March. The public meetings are conducted annually to obtain the opinions of sportsmen in regard to hunting and fishing rules and regulations. Dates and locations of the public meetings will be announced at a later date.

World's Fair To Draw Big Crowd At Display Completion

PALM BEACH—There will be a good representation of Florida in New York by April 22 as the Sunshine State's World's Fair exhibit comes to completion.

The Florida display of 3.12 acres on Meadow Lake will consist of three floating and three land-based areas. A 110-foot high citrus tower already serves as a landmark to the Florida area.

The floating buildings, or carousels, rest on six feet of styrofoam blocks. In the largest of the carousels porpoise from Miami's Seaquarium will perform daily.

A boardwalk—the "Bridge to the Keys"—will connect the floating carousels, one for the porpoise, one for the Florida Development Commission, and the other for Minute Maid Co. which will have a striking display.

Three subtropical homes will be at the end of the boardwalk emphasizing the ease of Florida living. Follage throughout the Florida display will be subtropical with citrus having a prominent position throughout the area.

THE FARM FRONT
BY DOYLE CONNER
COMMISSIONER
FLORIDA DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

Reports circulating in the food industry indicate there will be a storm of protests from that source if the new "austere" Federal budget forces the U. S. Department of Agriculture to drop some of its research to increase food distribution efficiency.

Other reports indicate that, besides research, the Federal Extension Service is expected to suffer some budget trimming.

I will be surprised if any radical curtailment of either USDA research or Extension occurs. It is being pointed out in Washington that both are politically touchy and Congress may balk at any recommended cuts.

All of the various steps in the chain of activities to get food from the farm to the consumer's kitchen comprise a healthy segment of the total agricultural business economy, and agribusiness, like it is in Florida, is the nation's biggest business.

Any research that tends to help prevent food costs from rising is likely to win support from urban legislators. Their influence is dominant in Congress today. It also is likely to win support of legislators from farm areas who would be opposed to rising food costs that would tend to reduce further the farmer's share of the consumer's food dollar.

I'm not a smoker, but I'm inclined to thin the recent report by the U. S. Surgeon General on the health hazards of smoking is not likely to have a lasting effect in reducing cigaret consumption.

The industry boomed in 1963 and U. S. Cigarette consumption hit a new high of 509 Billion. Overseas consumption by the Armed Forces boosted the total to 523 Billion.

Previous to the Surgeon General's report, the strongest indictment of cigarettes as a health hazard was that of the British Royal College of Physicians in March, 1962. Following a short-lived drop of 8 per cent, cigaret sales in Britain started climbing again and in 18 months were right back to the pre-report level.

Government and other restrictions on cigaret advertising are in effect in Great Britain, Finland, Denmark and probably some other countries. In Italy, the government tobacco monopoly in 1955 banned all advertising of domestic cigaret brands. In 1962 the ban was extended to foreign brands sold there.

According to USDA, there has been "no drop at all in Italian cigaret consumption."

I think, however, we'll be seeing some new trends related to the tobacco-and-health reaction: (1) a big upsurge in programs, remedies and what not designed to persuade, help or scare smokers into "kicking" the cigaret habit, and (2) some early action by tobacco manufacturers to shift into new and "safer" smokers.

In fact, one of the leading cigaret makers already is set to market a new filter cigaret brand, with a label stating the nicotine and tar content. Trade reports say the company claims for its product less tar in the smoke than published test results for any other brand currently selling in the U. S.

To the average home owner, grass in the yard means a periodic workout with the lawnmower. But to the cattleman and dairy farmer, the grass in his pastures may spell the difference between profit and loss.

Farmers throughout the U. S. are being advised to look into profit possibilities in a new forage crop—a sorghum-sudangrass with unusually high yield and excellent for pasture, hay, haylage, green chop and silage.

The new hybrid produces a remarkably high tonnage of high protein forage, can be grazed about a month after planting grows up again for use in about three weeks. As green chop it is reported to produce 20 to 30 tons to the acre per season.

First benefits from use of the new forage are expected to develop in our Southern states. But because it can be grown in other areas, it is expected it can provide widespread increases — as much as 100 per cent—in the number of livestock which one acre of pasture can sustain.

I note that the sweet potato is about to go "instant."

Produce News reports that sweet potato flakes, "the first truly instant sweet potato product ever marketed," now are available at retail stores in the Greater Philadelphia area.

Officials of both USDA and the State of North Carolina, which furnishes supplies for the new product, call the flaking process "a great new hope for the sweet potato as a significant money crop."

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Kelly were the weekend guests of their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Thomas, Jr., in Pahokee.

Rainbow Girls Hold Installation

Installation of the Rainbow for Girls took place on January 25, at 8:00 p. m. at the Masonic Hall in Pahokee. Officers installed were Mary Lee Adams, Worthy Advisor; Annette Nix, Worthy Associate Advisor; Penny Pennington, Charity; Elizabeth Gist, Hope; Gail Reeves, Faith; Pat Gandy, Recorder; Gloria Hall, Treasurer; Elaine Adams, Chaplain; Ann Peacock, Drill Leader; Brenda Maxson, Love; Lotus Gray, Religion; Patsy Crosby, Nature; Wilma Cooper, Immortality; Jewel Sykes, Fidelity; Linda Nix.

Patriotism; Debbie Gross, Service; Linda Douglas, Conf. Observer; Hazel Sheppard, Outer Observer; Ellen Jo Denton, Musician; and Mrs. Marie Hughes, Mother Advisor.

Installing officers were Mrs. Jessie Barnes, Miss Sharon Watson, Miss Hazel Sheppard, Mrs. Peggy Mims and Mrs. Adeline Wroten. Mrs. Barbara Branch was soloist.

A message from the Treasury of a free people

How to speak out for freedom today

Free men have never gone in much for silence. Even before the first thirteen States became United States, men were speaking for freedom loud and clear.

Today Americans speak out for freedom many ways—in Congress, in local government, in neighborhood activities. Some speak out for freedom in other languages, in other lands. And millions of Americans speak out for freedom every time they buy U.S. Savings Bonds.

Every Savings Bond you buy is an investment in freedom. While you're saving money for your own family's future, you're helping Uncle Sam tend to the business of keeping men free today.

Perhaps you don't speak out for freedom in the same tone of voice when you buy a Bond as Patrick Henry did in his famous speech. But you speak every bit as surely. And every bit as proudly.

Why not speak out for freedom now? Buy Bonds at the bank or on the Payroll Savings Plan where you work.

Keep freedom in your future with

U.S. SAVINGS BONDS

Let Your Money Earn 4½% Payable Semi-Annual

New $3\frac{3}{4}\%$ interest on U.S. Savings Bonds

The Treasury explains why the new ones you buy and the ones you own now are better than ever

Q: How does the new $3\frac{3}{4}\%$ interest rate benefit me?

A: With Series E Bonds, the rate turns $18.75 into $25.00 fourteen months faster than the old rate. Your savings increase faster, because your Bonds mature in just 7 years, 9 months.

With Series H Bonds, the 10-year maturity period stays the same but more interest is paid you each six months. With both E and H Bonds the new rate works out to $2\frac{1}{4}\%$ for the first year and a half; then a guaranteed 4% each year to maturity.

Q: When did the new rate become effective?

A: June 1, 1959.

Q: Does the new rate change the Bonds I bought before June 1, 1959?

A: All older E and H Bonds pay more now—an extra $\frac{1}{4}\%$ from now on, when held to maturity. The increase takes effect in the first full interest period after June 1.

Q: Will the Bonds I own automatically earn their new rate?

A: Yes. You don't need to do a thing—just hold on to your Bonds.

Q: When my E Bonds mature, will they keep on earning interest?

A: Yes. An automatic 10-year extension privilege went into effect along with the new interest rate. This means your E Bonds will automatically keep earning interest after maturity.

Q: With the new interest rate, should I cash in my old Bonds and buy new ones?

A: No. The automatic $\frac{1}{4}\%$ increase makes it unnecessary—and in almost every case it is to your advantage to retain your present Bonds.

Q: How are series H Bonds different from series E Bonds?

A: The chief difference is this: You buy H Bonds at full face value and the interest is paid by Treasury check every six months for the life of the Bond. You buy E Bonds at 75% of face value and the interest accumulates to maturity. H Bonds provide income for living expenses, while E Bonds build a nest egg for the future. That's why many retired people hold H Bonds and families saving for, say, a child's education, buy E Bonds.

Q: In what denominations can I buy series E and series H Bonds?

A: E Bonds: $25 (cost $18.75), $50 (cost $37.50), $100 (cost $75.00), $200 (cost $150.00), $500 (cost $375.00), $1,000 (cost $750.00), $10,000 (cost $7,500.00).

H Bonds: $500, $1,000, $5,000 and $10,000. They are priced at face value.

Q: How safe are U.S. Savings Bonds?

A: Savings Bonds are an absolutely riskless way to save. The United States Government guarantees the cash value of your Bonds will not drop, that it can only grow.

Q: What if my Bonds should be lost, stolen or destroyed?

A: You can't lose. Every Bond purchased is recorded by the Treasury. If anything happens to your Bonds they are replaced—free.

Q: Where can I buy Bonds?

A: Buy E Bonds at any bank—it takes only a few minutes. Buy them automatically through the Payroll Savings Plan wherever you work. This Plan means you can have any amount you want automatically deducted every payday. The Bonds you buy by installments are delivered to you automatically, too. Your bank will take your order for H Bonds.

Q: How do I help strengthen America's peace power when I buy U.S. Savings Bonds?

A: Peace costs money—money for military strength and for peace. And money saved by individuals helps keep our economy sound.

YOU SAVE MORE THAN MONEY WITH U. S. SAVINGS BONDS

John Dunkle Runs For Circuit Clerk

John B. Dunkle, Clerk of the Criminal Court, Saturday advocated the need for combining Palm Beach County's Criminal Court of office system with that of the Circuit Court.

Dunkle, Criminal Court Clerk for the past 3½ years, said he has long been a proponent of the move as an efficient and economical step in reducing the high cost of court procedures and in saving taxpayers thousands of dollars.

His statement was contained in an announcement that he plans to seek the Democratic nomination for the office of Clerk of Circuit Court. Present Clerk of the Circuit Court, J. Alex Arnette, has announced he will retire at the end of his present term. Dunkle said Arnette's retirement "provides the opportunity for me to seek this higher office which is closely allied in many ways to procedures of the Criminal Court of Record."

Underlining the need for consideration of the two offices, Dunkle noted the Florida Judicial Council has proposed merging them under one clerk for efficient operation. Dunkle said "if" and when this consolidation is achieved, I would like to be in the position to continue to serve the public with the same effort and economy that my record as Criminal Court Clerk has established."

Dunkle concluded, "I pledge my continued efforts toward economy and efficient operation of the office of Clerk of Circuit Court and earnestly solicit your consideration of my record, your support and your vote."

Colored Nursery Seeks Furnishings

Belle Glade's modern Wee Care Center, designed to provide adequate day care and nursery facilities for some 100 pre-school Negro children, is steadily coming into realization.

This bi-racial project is one that the community as a whole has entered into with much eagerness and effort. The need for 'wee care' is imperative as many working mothers have small children that cannot be left at home unmindful while they are assisting with the harvest of crops.

The formation of a Furnishings and Equipment Committee is one of the most recent phases of Wee Care, Inc. The committee has been organized under the direction of Miss Sara Lee Creech, Vice-President and Chairman of the Building Committee. Mrs. E. M. Lively has been elected Chairman of the committee and Mrs. John A. Dulany named Publicity Chairman.

Members of the committee, after much consideration and study, have made a detailed itemized list of furniture and other large equipment that will be needed for the new building. The latter will include a nursery, toddlers' room, kindergarten, kitchen, clinic room, office, waiting room, employees' lounge, and living quarters for a director. Items of linen, blankets, towels, face cloths, shirts, bibs, diapers, dishes, pots, pans, toys, have also been listed.
